“ Al is my beautiful friend Liz’s father. I didn’t know him well, but he had a sweet, somewhat mischievous smile that I adored and he seemed to really like my Swedish pancakes. Al, Judy and Liz drove a significant distance to attend both of my parents’ memorial services and this meant the world to me...such kind, warm, generous people. I wasn’t able to attend Al’s service safely due to unfortunate circumstances; however, I’m continuing to send prayers of comfort and big hugs to Liz and Judy. My sincerest condolences...Al was a good man and he will be missed.

“ Al was President of the OCDS community at Holy Cross Monastery, Iron Mt., MI when my wife and I entered. He rewrote the formation material and was instrumental in having Fr Donald Brick become Spiritual Director. He was a dedicated and exemplary Carmelite. Bob Kleinschmidt, OCDS.

“ I knew Al when he lived in Marinette WI. His wife, Judy served as principal of Holy Family School. Always very pleasant as we shared thoughts in conversations which often centered around his strawberry farm. He was quite successful as a "farmer." Al and Judy seemed to be a fine example of a married couple.
