Clarence J. Clarence was born on April 25, 1927 in Green Bay, the son of the now late Joseph and Helen (Opichka) Leiterman. On June 18, 1949, he married the former Doris Klarkowski at SS. Cyril & Methodius Catholic Church in Poland and the couple celebrated 48 years together. Doris preceded him in death in 1997. Clarence was raised on the family farm and in his early years he worked on the farm to help his family. He was a millworker at the former James River Paper Mill, now Georgia Pacific for over 36 years until his retirement in 1992. Clarence loved Polka Music and always enjoyed listening and dancing with Doris. He took great pride in his yard and considered himself the unofficial “branch manager” of his yard, as he could occasionally be found planting, trimming and taking care of his garden and flowers. Clarence had a giving spirit and always kept his eyes open to help his family and others with whatever they needed. He had a passion for automobiles and frequently came home with new cars, much to his families surprise. Clarence was an avid Packer and Brewer fan and enjoyed being able to spend time engrossed in the games~ if they were winning that is! He had a huge heart and was a good and faithful servant and when God called him home~ he answered it willingly. Clarence was a loving husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, great-great-grandfather, a friend to many and will always be lovingly remembered and sorrowfully missed.

“ Just wanted to share that when your father was at Brookview Meadows and saw me going to visit my father in law he would always take time to ask me about my Mom Audrey and share a few things about his family which always brought a smile to his face.

I will always remember Uncle Clarence with that lovely smile. I'm sorry I'm going to miss all you because I'm out of town but please know I'm thinking of all of you at this time. My deepest condolences. Debby
