“ My heart is so heavy and I cannot express my sorrow enough - my blessings, prayers, and love going to you, Judy, and the rest of your dear family. Jerry was my biggest support at MANY, MANY times while I've had him on Facebook as a friend. Ten years is a long time to build a strong bond of friendship and that's just what we did so I'm truly missing my buddy. He loved my rock painting and told me of his rock etching projects and would send me Pinterest links for ideas of rocks to paint. Love and Hugs to Everyone.

“ My heart breaks for all of you. No, I never met Jerry, but I feel very close as we have been Facebook friends for many years. I have learned what a special man he was and how much he loved his family and WI sports teams. His emails and messages to me were always funny or uplifting. God be with y'all at this time and bring the comfort only He can give.

“ We met Jerry many years ago through Brad and Jean Bouche. He and his wife Judy became our dearest and closest friends ever. His smile lit up a room and he always had jokes to tell and made you laugh. We enjoyed many, many times together and treasured them all and went on a vacation or two with them. It did not matter what we did together we always had an awesome time. We are heartbroken and sad right now but know he is in heaven and God has gotten the best angel possible. We will join him someday in heaven but until then he will always be in our hearts and memories. RIP Jerry we love you and miss you something terrible.
