“ "Mrs. D" was an amazing woman and was such a huge part of my, and my family's, life. When my sister, Renee, started taking dance at Delorit's, I would come along to her classes and sit on the side. When I started doing the steps and dancing along with my sister's class from the sidelines, Mrs. D encouraged my mom to put me in class. I studied under Gert's watchful eye for eight years; she nurtured my passion for performing and enriched my life in ways that extended beyond just the dance floor. Mrs. D will be missed, but the energy and enthusiasm she had for life and for her students will always be remembered, and the fond memories will always live on.

“ Truly changed people's lives...from age 5 to 14, once a week, she brightened my day. Dance lesson then a gumball

“ I loved your Mom, and taking dance lessons. She was so patient, and an excellent teacher. I couldn't wait for "dance day", I'd just walk across Webster Ave. since we lived in the red brick home. (Schneiderman's). She was a remarkable woman, I loved learning the fact that she was such a great figure skater, and that she taught dance for so long.

I'm thinking of you all during this time of grief and loss. It isn't easy no matter what age to lose your Mom (and Dad). Elizabeth Hill (Betty Schneiderman)

“ My sympathy to the Delorit family and my memories go way back. I think I was one of Mrs. D.'s first dance students. What I remember most was living near Webster Park and learning a few figure skating moves from her. Dreams of being a Peggy Fleming did not come true but I remember her gentle way of treating children. She had a passion for figure skating and dance. Know she touched so many lives.

“ I've known Mrs. Delorit since I was 3 years old and I am 20 now. She was the lady everyone wanted to be when they were at that age. She taught me so much about life! Us girls remember her telling us no boys! She could always make you smile! Especially when we would get her Christmas presents and she would close her eyes and make us open it, then fake cry. God knows she was an incredible lady! She also knew my grandma Mary Lu VandenAvond since they were teenagers. My grandma would go on for hours about dancing with Gert. So much so that there was no way I was going anywhere else for dance! Through dance I met the most amazing girls. Now I try to live as free spirt and loving as Gert did. I love you Mrs. D! Forever and always a Delorit Dolly

“ Gert and Bob were our neighbors on the bay of Green Bay for many years. We have many happy memories of both of them. Remembering when Gert went with her sisters on a trip and Bob decided to paint the cottage. But when she came home, she didn't like the color so Bob painted it again. They were such a happy couple with us always. Then Gert lost Bob and we had a sad but still energetic Gert as our neighbor. Then we got to see another side of Gert as a marvelous dance teacher with our two granddaughters. They will be so sad to know that with your Bob. We got to visit you only once as distance kept us apart but not our memories of you.
