Ronald DeJardin, 81, Green Bay passed away peacefully on Tuesday, October 12, 2021. Ron was born on September 11, 1940, to the late Joseph and Alice (Berger) DeJardin. On September 16, 1958, he married Priscilla Ducane at St. Hubert Catholic Church and recently celebrated their 63rd Wedding Anniversary. It was a rare occasion you ever saw them apart, even working together for many years. Ron's faith was an inspiration to many. He honored the lord through daily prayers. His devotion to his wife, children, and grandchildren was admirable and he cherished his time with them. Ron always had a smile and sweet endearment for everyone. He was a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend to many. Ron will always be lovingly remembered and sorrowfully missed.

Ron was employed as a Maintenance Engineer at the two Ramada Inns in Green Bay for many years. He liked to stay busy and had multiple interests in a variety of activities. He had a talent for problem solving and fixing just about anything except for cars. He loved playing cards and socializing, especially with his brothers and sisters in law. Besides being an avid golfer and fisherman, Ron had an artistic side to him as well. He was a self-taught guitar player belting out Hank Williams Sr. songs for himself in the basement to his kids delight. He also enjoyed creating beautiful stained-glass art, paintings, drawings, and wood working projects. Ron built many landscape projects for Percy's gardens including Koi ponds that brought them years of joy.

Ron is survived by his loving wife: Priscilla, his children: Craig (Barbara) DeJardin, Deb Hammond, Todd DeJardin (Dori), 10 grandchildren: Sara (Chris), Lindsay (Mike), Tim (Kasey), Michelle (Clinton), Amanda (Todd), Adam (Stephanie), Joe, Lillie, Sam, and Breanna (Jacob). 12 great-grandchildren, his twin brother Donald (Judy) DeJardin, brother Larry (Barb) and sisters-in-law: Clara DeJardin and Kathy DeJardin. “ Uncle Ron was my Idol. All through life I went to him for advise, when I had a decision to make I would try to think what he would do. I believe he was a true philosopher, he would look at the cards dealt him from different angles and try to make the best decisions. When he was younger he had a passion for squirrel hunting, there was no one that was better, someone could go hunt a woods and come out with 3 squirrels, he would go into the same woods and come out with 20 or more. He was never afraid of hard work and when tackling a project it would usually be something to admire when he finished it. The way he dealt with life"s issues was unique, always putting others first and never putting anyone down for being less than perfect. He is at peace now leaving behind a pair of big shoes that can never be filled. The best uncle ever, Steve “ Ron was a favorite uncle, being nine years older he was more like the big brother I never had. Our families spent many a Sunday afternoons trying to control the staring population. Ron always made time to include the younger kids in the conversation. Later years it always easy to start a conversation by just mentioning my latest Harley Davidson purchase, the love of motorcycles we both shared. Yes, he will always be very fondly remembered as a great uncle, and close friend.
