“ My mother was Carmen Tourville. I have fond memories of Shirley’s laugh. I enjoyed spending time just listening to her talk. She has shown me nothing but kindness and didn’t make me feel like a bothersome child interrupting her friend time with my mom. I’m sorry for your loss. Mothers cannot be replaced!

“ My deepest sympathy to all the family of Shirley. She was a beautiful lady. I loved listening to her and Fay Kegel talking about the many antics they did as they drove around the State. She also had the most awesome wardrobe and also dressed with care. She will be missed. Blessings, Sharon Banning
