

Amie LaCount

August 2, 1980 - December 2, 2012

My name is Amy “Amie” Rose LaCount. I was born on August 5, 1980 and went to heaven on December 2, 2012. My life was taken by a rare condition called Castleman’s Disease. My parents, Thomas LaCount and Katherine and Gary Ferron along with my brother Luke LaCount and my favorite Aunt Mary took care of me at home for as long as they could at my grandmother, Billie Baran’s home. I am so thankful for the wonderful loving care I received from the Unity Hospice nurses, especially Kathy and Cindy who shall forever be in my heart. I would like to thank St. Vincent Oncology for the wonderful care I received. Dr. Blank, I’m wearing my false eyelashes! Dr. Koch, thanks for your visits and loving care and Dr. Wilson for listening to me. Thank-you to my Aunt Tina, cousin Chad and Aunt Star for their many visits and Uncle Scott and Aunt Cathy for making the great food and burgers at my benefit. Thanks to everyone who helped and contributed the day of my benefit. To my sister Jackie, thank-you for helping me and making me laugh. I’m so grateful I was able to see my friends Kelly, Jenny and Michelle again. Carl, please take care of my Dad and you both better behave. Hey Mom, I’m a size 10 now! I love you all and I’ll be singing with you always. Gathering of family and friends will be held from 9:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. on Saturday, December 8, 2012 at Living Hope Church 1840 W. Mason Street. A Service of Remembrance will be held at 11:00 A.M. with Pastor Mike LeClaire officiating.
