

Mrs. Anne K. Delwiche

April 15, 1942 - August 22, 2023

Anne K. Delwiche, 81, passed away on Tuesday, August 22, 2023, at home on Washington Island. Anne was born on April 15, 1942 in Evansville, Indiana, and raised in Green Bay, Wisconsin. Her father, Herbert Bomalaski, was a well-known weatherman in Green Bay. Her mother, Mary Louise (Heuwinkel) Bomalaski, died when Anne was young and her stepmother, Kathryn (Slatky) Bomalaski, helped raise her.

Anne graduated in 1964 from U.W. Oshkosh with a B.A. in education. She was employed as a primary school teacher at Rothschild-Schofield School District, Pioneer Elementary School in Ashwaubenon and St. Philips Catholic Grade School in Green Bay.

On April 23, 1973, Anne married John Delwiche at Resurrection Catholic Church. After raising their family and caring for their parents in Green Bay, Anne and John retired to their beloved Washington Island. They were drawn by their interest in birding and stayed to build a beautiful home and a warm community through Stella Maris Parish, Trinity Quilters, Sievers School of Fiber Arts, and Washington Island Community Health Program. Anne was a wonderfully talented and deeply knowledgeable teacher, homemaker, and crafter, highly skilled in sewing, quilting, knitting, basket making, gardening, cooking, baking, and canning - to name a few exploits. Anne's love of fun led to many gatherings of family, quilters, and knitters at the Delwiche house, which always included home-cooked meals, cookies, board games, jigsaw puzzles, and plenty of time admiring the island wildlife.

Anne is survived by John, her loving husband of 50 years; her children Kathryn Delwiche (Vince Rechsteiner), San Pablo, California; Joseph Delwiche (Amy Hofer), Portland, Oregon; Stephen Delwiche (Anne Kroes), Northfield, Minnesota; her grandson Nicholas Norris; her brother John (Pat) Bomalaski; and her sisters-in-law Theresa Picard and Audrey Delwiche. She is further survived by a large extended family whose lineage Anne diligently explored through online communities.

A gathering of family and friends will be held from 10:00 A.M. to 11:30 A.M. on Wednesday, August 30, 2023 at Stella Maris Parish (Trinity Lutheran Church), 1763 Town Line Road, Washington Island. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11:30 A.M. with Rev. Tom Farrell officiating. A Graveside Service will be held at 1:00 P.M. on Thursday, August 31, 2023 with Ann Froelich at Allouez Catholic Cemetery. Donations may be made to Washington Island Community Health Program at WICHP, P.O. Box 277, Washington Island WI 54246.

“ So many years too late in gaining a friendship with my dearest Anne:(Taking on a challenge to make a trip to Washington Island with K9HJL aka John Enigl Sr, my dad was a Chance in life that proved Tender Souls live good on the island. Finding John and Anne’s home was like a mission from God as it bonded 2 countries for life, America and France. Thierry FRICOT aka F4GVO was able to keep tabs on our venture through technology of Amazement. Such a beautiful home with a strong handsome man greeting us in the driveway. And the Truest Treasure of Kindness stood in the doorway of the house. Precious as a snowflake on a moonlit night, glistening from ear to ear:) A warm soft touching hand and a Peaceful voice of Love and Pride for life well lived 😊 and a Steadfast Spirit for her next Adventure. Anne reminded me of my own mother as she showed me her photos of wildlife. While the boys went out for a ride, I stayed back and truly Absorb Anne’s friendship. Everything that we talked about in our short time together always lead Anne back to her Love for her family and friends. Never once did she show a sign of regret in our visit. I would of loved to of stayed there longer but it wasn’t in our deck of cards that day. I took a selfie photo of us together and made the same remark as Anne, “we’re like two peas in one pod” and in that one split second in time God gave us togetherness and an everlasting bonding love. May her life stories be shared with all walks of life as Anne cherished it carefully. May our good friend John aka K9IY find his beloved soulmate in every single inch of his life going forward. We are truly sorry for the family and friends of Anne for her candle has dimmed. But she is everywhere now and Heaven just got brighter! With a heartfelt love and hugs we thank you for sharing your wonderful person with our family that day. Connie & Henry Judd, John Enigl Sr & Jr and Thierry FRICOT 🇫🇷🇺🇸
