

Annette Brooks

November 13, 1938 - May 12, 2009

Annette Brooks was born November 13, 1938 to the union of Robert and LaReatha Cooper in Jackson, Mississippi. She relocated to Milwaukee, Wisconsin at the age of 12. Annette was united in holy matrimony to Herbert J. Brooks, where a special gift of life was given to them, Veloris Brooks. Annette was first a member of Beautiful Savior Lutheran Church in Milwaukee, WI. She later moved to Green Bay, where she not only became a member, but a loved mother of Divine Temple Church of God In Christ. Annette retired as a RN from Lutheran Hospital where she loved and cared for all new born babies. She is preceded in death by father, Robert L. Cooper; mother LaReatha Cooper (Battle) and grandmother, Ophelia Battle. She leaves to cherish her memory daughter, Veloris Brooks; two grandsons, Clayvon and Justing Savage; stepmother, Wilma Cooper of Beaumont, TX; three aunts, Mary Bonnie, Lula Mae Austin, Ernestine Coleman all of San Diego, CA, four dear friends Mother Fannie Stewart, Mother Georgia Ware, Deacon Collie Bryant and Betty Lewis. Annette also leaves a host of loving relatives and dear friends. Gathering of family and friends will be held from 12:00 P.M. (noon) to 1:00 P.M. on Friday (Today) May 15, 2009 at Divine Temple Church of God in Christ 425 Cherry Street. Funeral Service 1:00 P.M. at the Church with Rev. L.C. Green officiating. Annette will be buried Saturday at 10:30am in Glen Oak Cemetery in Milwaukee. On Line condolences may be expressed at www.hansenfuneralservice.com Special thanks to all who cared and shared. Thanks to the Lewis family for their love and kindness. A special thanks to all who traveled to be here for our family. Your generosity will always be remembered.