“ We sure had some fun times mom. Working at a crazy nursing home together for 10 yrs. & sharing some of our most loving & caring friends. You were there for me when I married Bear, when Tristen was born & so much more. I will miss our heart wrenching laughs & wonderful conversations about history, family & just about everything. You were the last of the great ones. Who am I gonna ask for advice when only you understood me? Who will say Jennifer “I love you very much” the way you did? I have many great memories of you & know I will see you again. I believe you are in a great place, if I didn’t, there is no way I could survive. Till we meet again sweetheart❤️
