

Bonnie Kasal

January 12, 1959 - April 16, 2024

Bonita 'Bonnie' S. Kasal, 65, of Green Bay, passed away Tuesday, April 16, 2024 at her residence with her family by her side. She was born on January 12, 1959 in Algoma, daughter of the late Donald and Janet (Meyer) Parkos. Bonnie was a graduate of Kewaunee High School with the class of 1977. On August 19, 1978 she married Charles Kasal at Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Kewaunee. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother and grandmother. Bonnie was very kindhearted and loved spending time with her family. One of the last things Bonnie said was, "You know what, I have a great family." She was and always will be an inspiration. She enjoyed bird watching, gardening and she loved wolves. Her one and only tattoo was of a wolf. Bonnie and Charles enjoyed travelling together as well. Special memories were made on trips to 'Oh My God Road,' Pikes Peak and many destinations featuring Native American Culture, especially many trips to South Dakota.

Bonnie is survived by her husband of more than 45 years: Charles Kasal; their five children: Heidi (Joseph) Ritchie, Charles Kasal, Amy Kasal, Megan Kasal and Darci (Bradley) Martin; seven grandchildren: Shayla Ritchie, Remy Ritchie, Brinley Ritchie, Sirius Kasal, Symon Kasal, Lincoln Kasal and William Martin; brothers and sisters: Karen (Dave) Fager, Debbie (Mark) Sgarioto, Vicki (Frank) Salentine, Gail Kimball, Lisa (Kevin) Verhagen, Dean Parkos and Tammy (Tom) Schneider; brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law: Laurie (Steve) Murray, Wendy (Dan) Jerabek, Jean (John) Van Rybroek; nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends also survive. She was preceded in death by her parents: Donald and Janet Parkos; one granddaughter: Evelyn Martin; and her father-in-law and mother-in-law: Charles and Dorothy Kasal.

Visitation for Bonnie will be held on Saturday, April 27, 2024 at Woodlawn Cemetery Chapel, 1542 Webster Ave, Green Bay from 10:00 AM until the time of service at 12:00 PM (noon) with burial to follow.
