

Mrs. Carolyn M. Schweger

December 4, 1920 - January 12, 2016

Carolyn Mae Schweger (Hansen)

Carolyn M. Schweger, 95, Green Bay died on Tuesday, January 12, 2016. Carolyn was born December 4, 1920 in Wittenberg, Wisconsin to Dr. and Mrs. F.W. Hansen. Upon graduation from Wittenberg High School she worked at Cappells Department Store. Carolyn married her high school sweetheart Earl B. Schweger on 9 February 1941. The family lived in Shawano, Clintonville, and Green Bay, Wisconsin until 1963 when they moved to Albuquerque, New Mexico. In 1965 the family moved to Dallas, Texas for 37 years before returning to Green Bay.

Carol and Earl were the parents of three sons, Dr. Charles (Barbara) Schweger, John Schweger, and Paul Schweger. Carolyn is survived by her sons, two Granddaughters, Culley (Steve Bell) and Maija (Nerraj Prakash, five precious Great-Grandchildren, Salix, Linnea, and Violet Bell, and Indra and Nayan Prakash and special family member, son John's Godchild, Caroline Alvarez. Other survivors include her niece Mary Ellen (Hansen) Keller and nephew Robert Hansen and cousin Jerilyn (Westgor) Forde and the Hansen Family in Denmark, Europe.

Carolyn was a Homemaker for most of her life, enjoying knitting, and reading, special times with many friends, and precious moments with her beloved dogs. Both Carolyn and Earl were avid Packer fans and even after 37 years in Dallas, retained their Packer season tickets. Her love of knitting eventually commenced a career of teaching knitting for 20 years at Sears and judging at the State Fair of Texas.

Carolyn was preceded in death by husband Earl, 20 September 2007, Mother and Father Dr. F. W. Hansen, brothers Robert and Edward, and sister-in laws Addie Hansen, and Gretchen Sousek.

Burial will take place at the beautiful country-side Forest Home Cemetery in Wittenberg, Wisconsin where other family members and loved ones are interred. No special service arrangements are planned at this time.

Special thanks to the staff of the Odd Fellows Home for the kind care and attention.
