Charone E. (Nelson) Scott, 43, fell asleep in death on March 31, 2020, surrounded by family. She is now in Jehovah's loving memory and awaiting the time when "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" to a resurrection of life -John 5:28-29.

Charone was born on July 18, 1976, in Chicago, Illinois to her late parents Johnny Nelson II and Elnora Nelson Blackburn. Charone loved her God, Jehovah, and demonstrated such when she was baptized as one of Jehovah's Witnesses on April 29, 2006. She then zealously volunteered to assist others in learning about the good news of Jehovah's Kingdom and living on a paradise earth. She took delight in serving Jehovah, and walking in Jesus Christ's footsteps. In addition to serving Jehovah, she enjoyed camping, fishing, traveling and spending time with her grandson, Noah.

Charone loved life, her family, and will be deeply missed by all. She is survived by her husband Joseph Scott; daughter, Melissa (Andrew) Bader; grandson, Noah Swetlik; siblings, Medles Johnson; Will (Massey) Johnson; Alice Nelson; Johnny Nelson III; Alfred Nelson; Lawrence Nelson; and Rosie Nelson; as well as many other extended family and friends.
