Conrad “Con” Servi, passed away peacefully on Monday, January 22, 2024 at home with his family by his side. Born in Antigo, Wisconsin in 1928, he spent his early years on his father's farm, surrounded by the love of his parents, Charles and Clara (Fleischman) Servi, and his 6 brothers and sisters. Con's journey took him from the heart of Wisconsin to Los Angeles, where he established an auto repair shop before being called to serve his country in the Korean War. As a combat veteran, Con's dedication to his Country resulted in him being injured. After recovery, he continued to serve and was later honorably discharged as a sergeant.

After his separation from the Army, Con returned to Antigo, Wisconsin, where he met the love of his life, Shirley McMillion. They settled in Green Bay, where they built a life filled with love and shared adventures. Con worked as a truck driver, was a skilled mechanic and later accepted a position as the highway commissioner for Brown County until his retirement. Con and Shirley were blessed with two children, Charles and Pegi.

Con and Shirley celebrated 45 years of marriage until she preceded him in death in May of 2001. During her illness Con was a devoted husband and faithfully took care of her. Although, Shirley passed away too young, Con found solace in his retired years by indulging in his passion for travel. He explored new horizons with his brother and embraced the thrill of ATViing in the picturesque landscapes of northern Wisconsin. An avid outdoorsman and hunter, Con found joy and peace in nature, passing on his love for the wilderness to his children and grandchildren.

Con's stoic demeanor and unwavering happiness left an indelible mark on the lives of those around him. Whether bringing laughter to family gatherings or sharing stories of his experiences, Con's presence illuminated the lives of his children and grandchildren.
