

Mr. Daniel Shanoski

January 25, 1946 - December 31, 2019

Daniel Shanoski, age 73, passed away on Tuesday, December 31 in Green Bay, WI where he's lived for the last five years. Born in 1946 in Detroit, Daniel (Dan) was son to Dr. Stanley and Celia Shanoski. He attended Wayne Street University as an undergraduate and received his law degree from the University of Detroit after serving in the U.S. Navy.

He is survived by his sons Daniel (Jeny) Shanoski and Richard (Jessica) Shanoski; daughter Jennifer Shanoski; grandsons Tristen Shanoski, Vicente Spizzamiglio, and Ryan Shanoski; granddaughter Sophie Spizzamiglio; and sister Cindi (Ron) Johncox.

Dan made a career as an attorney and real estate broker. He enjoyed fishing and boating in the many Michigan lakes and took great pride in caring for his home. He played in various card clubs, enjoyed golf, and appreciated travel.

A small, private service was held in Green Bay, WI. Charitable contributions can be made in his name to the Marine Conservation Institute, 4010 Stone Way N., Suite 210, Seattle, WA 98103.
