She had a nature you could not help loving,
a heart that was purer than gold;
And to those who knew her and loved her,
her memory will never grow old.

“Diane and I worked together for four years at Farmers Insurance. She was a pleasure to work with. I can remember how much fun we had with our boss, Joe Leisgang. She was so kind, and would go out of her way to help anyone. When things got hard in my personal life due to my husband, Jack, being laid off, she talked to Reid about hiring him at KI, as Reid was a supervisor there at the time. Jack went for an interview with Reid and was hired. I will be forever grateful to both of them. The last time I saw Diane was about five years ago at the gym. We chatted and reminisced about the old days. I was so happy to see her. Please accept my sympathy to you, Keven and Heather, in the kiss of your wonderful mother. May your memories sustain you. May you find comfort in knowing that your mother and dad are once again together.

Sincerely, Jan Piehl, 1166 Echo lane

“ It's hard to imagine Diane being gone. She and Reid were our next door neighbors ever since we moved in when I was four or so; they watched us grow up, always buying Girl Scout cookies from me and Boy Scout popcorn from my brother, we played with their grandchildren Sylvia and Gabriel until they moved, and we always enjoyed the immense amount of leaves that fell from their big tree in the backyard, raking it for them (as well as jumping in the giant piles). I cannot count the number of times Reid and Diane have been there to give me a friendly smile and a wave, never passing on quick conversation that tended to brighten my day. Even our dogs loved seeing them; they would run over and say hello without fail. Reid's declining condition didn't quite stop him from doing all the things that we knew him to do, like mowing the lawn or walking to get the newspaper, but he did it a little less than normal. So when we heard of his passing, we were still a bit surprised. But Diane's came with no warning, no declining condition. Only friendly waves accompanying shoveling the driveway, getting the mail, shoveling the driveway again. I will miss Diane, every time I look over towards her house. I will no longer be able to see her friendly face, I can no longer count on her waving hand. But she was the epitome of friendly neighbors, and I will always remember her for that.
