

Doris Daumler

January 1, 1934 - May 20, 2012

Doris Daumler, lifelong resident of Green Bay, passed away unexpectedly after a brief illness on Sunday, May 20 at the age of 78. Doris worked at St. Vincent Hospital as a telecommunication specialist for the past 22 years and also worked at Pauley Cheese as an accounting clerk for more than 25 years. Her favorite hobby was singing as a second soprano with the Chantelles. She loved the Broadway songs and the musical skits they performed. Doris enjoyed traveling and especially loved Hawaii. Always optimistic, cheerful and ready to strike up a pleasant conversation with everyone she met, made Doris a very special lady. She will be greatly missed by her brother Walter and his wife Diane, her cousins, many nieces and nephews in Green Bay, Colorado and Washington and all of her friends she made throughout her wonderful life. The family also wishes to express heartfelt thanks to the staff at St. Vincent's Hospital for their extraordinary care and compassion. Gathering of family and friends will be held from 3:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. on Thursday, May 24, 2012 at St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church 413 St. John Street. A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 5:00 P.M. with Msgr. James Feely officiating. Burial at Allouez Catholic Cemetery.
