

Edna Spencer Adams

June 28, 1934 - April 1, 2008

Edna Spencer Adams, a long time resident of Hobart, IN; died on April 1, 2008 with her children present in hospice care near her home in De Pere . Edna was an unregaled artist capturing the simplicity and wonder of what was around her. She graciously shared this gift with family and friends who appreciate her efforts. Also, the genealogical inspiration to the family, introducing this passion to her nephew in St. Louis and passing the tradition to her granddaughter in California. She leaves her daughter Carol (Mitch) Davis, Tabuco Canyon, CA; a son Rick (Lisa) Adams, Green Bay; other close remaining relatives are her three grandchildren, Laura Engel, Tabuco Canyon and Emma and Ryan Adams, a brother-in-law John Redmond. Edna is further survived by nieces, nephews other relatives and friends. She was preceded in death by her parents, father Myron G. Spencer, mother Edna D. Spencer and step-mother Johanna Hagspihl, two sisters Evelyn Redmond and Myra Jo Clark. The family will hold Memorial Services at a later date with notices sent to family and friends. In lieu of flowers or gifts the family suggests donations be made to your local family violence center and support for art-in-school programs.