

Floyd B. Howe

November 23, 1917 - July 18, 2009

Floyd “Brad” Howe, 91, Green Bay passed away on Saturday, July 18, 2009 at Santa Maria Nursing Home. Brad was born on November 23, 1917 in Mellen, Wisconsin the son of the late David and Emma (Lee) Howe. On October 5, 1938 he married the former Juliaetta Anna Macheichok. Brad spent most of his working years as a Lumberjack and a Pulp Cutter working for his foster father Johnny Young. He also had the honor of building the prominent Alcan Highway in Canada which runs all the way into Alaska. Brad had a deeply personal relationship with Jesus Christ and placed a great deal of faith in prayer and was dedicated to teaching Bible Study. He was a hard worker, loved his family and was just a “good guy”. Brad is survived by his loving wife Juliaetta, three sons and two daughters-in-law Floyd Howe II, Green Bay; David and Sharon Howe, Waupun; Bruce and Hallie Howe, Everett, WA; one daughter and son-in-law Ardelle and Alton Anschutz, Green Bay; 20 grandchildren, 38 great-grandchildren and 2 great great-grandchildren, 1 sister Goldie Muelver, 2 sisters-in-law Della and Mildred. He is further survived by many nieces, nephews other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by one daughter Isabelle Irene Howe-Juedes, one sister and brother-in-law Helen and Joseph Rappley, four brothers Richard, Leslie, Clifford and Wally. In honor of Brad’s wishes there will be a private gathering and funeral service for the immediate family. In lieu of flowers a memorial fund has been established.
