

Glen Wesenberg

November 9, 1923 - June 24, 2013

Glen H. Wesenberg, 89, Green Bay passed away at home on Monday, June 24, 2013. Glen was born on November 9, 1923 in Bloomer, Wisconsin the son of the now late William and Esther Wesenberg. He married Charlotte Lynch and together they shared 63 wonderful years of marriage. Glen served his country in the Army Air Corps during W.W. II. After his honorable discharge he pursued his education obtaining a Chemical Engineering Degree from the University of Wisconsin Madison. Glen continued his chemical Engineering career as Vice President for FEECO with a PE License. His travels took him to 5 Continents. Glen's outgoing personality created warm friendships throughout the world. Glen's love of the outdoors was served by his annual fishing trips to Canada and his favorite fishing hole at his cottage on Maiden Lake in Lakewood, Wisconsin. Glen was an avid Packers fan with 55 years of season tickets. He was also known for his 200 harmonica songs. Some of the organizations that Glen belonged to include the American Legion Post 11, Shriners, Masons, American Chemical Society, American Institute of Chemical Engineers and the National Professional Engineers Society. Glen is survived by his loving wife Charlotte who was also his caregiver for 10 years, his son Glenn L. Wesenberg, one daughter and son-in-law Sally and Tom McCoy, 3 grandsons, Marques, Nicholas, Andrew (Jasmin), 1 great-grandson Isaiah, 1 brother Mel Wesenberg. He is further survived by numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. He was preceded in death by his son Wayne, 1 sister Gladys, 2 brothers Arno and Roy. In honor and respect of Glen's wishes a private gathering and funeral service will be held for the immediate family.

The family would like to offer a special thank-you to the staffs of Unity Hospice for all of their wonderful care.
