“ Thinking of the entire Biegert family at this difficult time. My thoughts and prayers are with you during your time of sorrow. May God bless you and your families.

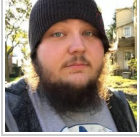

Please remember the good times with JoeJoe, as those memories will continue to be a light shining in the distance which we can all walk toward, with the hope and faith we will meet again. MAY HE REST IN PEACE.

I pray he is now with all the loved ones who have gone on before and that they, again, enjoy each other's company in eternal love and life.

“ I will never forget how we met... I started playing Final Fantasy XI, and was a very low leveled person... One day I went to far into the desert of Bastok, and was being chased by some very high leveled Monsters and all I could do is run, and shout for help.

That's when Biegert57 swooped in and saved me. From there we exchanged information so we could chat outside the game, and became really good friends outside the game. He was my mentor, a brother, and now my guardian angel.

I love you bro, I will always carry you with me.

Love and Peace

“ I would like to share a memory of Joe that I have with that brings a big smile my face. When were kids we always use to tell on each other to our parents. Whenever Joe would rat on me to our parents, that boy would always try and find a way to get a sneak peak of my parents yelling and grounding me. I could see Joe hiding in the background giggling with that sneaky smile he had as my parents would be yelling at me. I'm sure I was thinking at that time (Ohhhh there will be payback!) That was how we showed our brother-sister love. :) Joe was the perfect instigator, and it just brings a smile to my face to think about some of the things he would do.

“ My memory of my son Joseph will always be. How beautiful he was. He had the best smile. The greatest laugh. He had a kind heart and cared about many. He'd be the first to say I'm sorry without hesitation. Even at his lowest point he still smiled. His love was true and pure. Never fake. He could get under your skin like no other and he loved to see just how far he could go. He never hesitated to tell me he loved me. His heart was big. I will miss him soooooo much. Joseph you will always be in my heart and my soul 4 8888888 and beyond. Till we meet again. You are free my beautiful son.
