

Juanita McKelvin

July 5, 1941 - November 1, 2014

Celebrating the life of Juanita Josephine McKelvin. Juanita McKelvin was born on July 5, 1941 to the union of Pearl Timberlake and Marvin L. Nash. She was lively and full of joy and very outspoken. Juanita had no problem helping others in a time of need. She left an impression on everyone she came in contact with. Juanita met her husband Clarence in Chicago, Ill and married on October 1, 1958. Juanita gave birth to a son Lonnie on December 24, 1957. She became a long standing foster parent of Connie, Affie, April, Mary Newson. Juanita attended Roosevelt High and attended Greater Harvest Baptist Church. Juanita worked as a machine operator at Helene Curtis for over 15 years in Chicago, Ill. After retirement she moved to Green Bay and started working at Encompass Daycare as a Foster Grandparent. She also was involved with the Commandos, CYD and schools throughout the Milwaukee area. Juanita was a long time and devoted member of SS Peter & Paul Catholic Church. She departed this life on November 1, 2014, her mother Pearl Timberlake and father Marvin Nash, Grandparents Charity and Charles Tate, Aunt Elizabeth Smith and Uncle Houston Westmoreland, cousins Laura M. Skinner, Antoinette Nash and her loving son Lonnie McKelvin all preceded her in death. Juanita is survived by her husband Clarence McKelvin and her loving and devoted family including her sisters Delores Nash, Kimberly Nash and Gail Gray, her brothers Marvin and Zac Nash, nieces Victoria Nash, Tasha Bingham, nephew James Nash, cousins James and Mary Timberlake, Emanuel Pettigrue Jr., Michael Nash, Tanya Eileen and Mildred

Westmoreland, 14 grandchildren & 9 great-grandchildren and a host of family and friends.