“ Kent Haluska was a terrible person. The first time he was arrested at age 26, in 2008 for a defamation of character against his competitor, Ms. Solo. He was thrown in jail and lost his real estate license. Later, in 2012 he was arrested again and spend time in Brown County jail. This experience did not stop him, because he was arrested a third time in the state of TX. During his lifetime, he hurt more people than we know about and spend his days as a criminal. His death is a blessing for this world.
