

Lynn Borley

December 18, 1946 - February 13, 2014

Lynn A. Jaeger-Borley age 67 of Green Bay passed away Thursday morning, February 13, 2014 at a local hospital after a long battle with heart disease.

Lynn was born on December 18, 1946 to Emil & Deloris (Krause) Jaeger in Oconto Falls. She graduated from Oconto Falls High School with the class of 1964. She moved to Green Bay where she raised 2 daughters while working full time. Lynn enjoyed decorating, cooking, shopping and sitting outside on a warm day. She was an avid Packer fan and enjoyed watching the games.

Lynn was an amazingly strong woman, whom everyone could count on for support, spunkiness and joyous laughter. Her strength and independence was visible in every part of her life. Lynn never gave up living and fought til the very end. Lynn is survived by her husband Leo Borley, children Angel Smith (Dan), Jody Svoboda, grandchildren Cullyn Zogelman, Sadie Smith, mother Deloris VanLarhoven, loving companion Levity, step daughters, step grandchildren, step great grandchildren, brothers Curt Jaeger (Charlie), Jerry Jaeger (like a sister Linda), sister Deb VanRemortal (Pete) and extended loving family and friends. She was preceded in death by her father Emil Jaeger, Step father Jake VanLarhoven and step son Danny Borley. Gathering of family and friends will be held from 9:00 A.M. to 11:00 A.M. on Thursday, February 20, 2014 at Calvary Lutheran Church 1301 S. Ridge Road. A Service of Remembrance will be held at 11:00 A.M. with Pastor Earl Vorpapel III officiating. In lieu of flowers a memorial fund will be established in her honor. A special thanks to all who helped care for her over the last 18yrs~ Your kindness, love and devotion to Lynn will always be lovingly remembered and never forgotten.
