“ It is February 4th and I just heard about dear Lynn's departure. We performed together (soprano and mezzo) at Rice University on a program organized by the Cambiata Soloists in a theatrical work composed by Dr. Ellsworth Milburn. She was a wonderful talent and colleague. Sing with the angels now, Lynn!

“ Neal, Bev, Linda and the host of souls touched by the bright flame of our Lynn's talents and passions: we are bereft of her voice, her laughter, her unquenchable search for all means to lift up those around her but Lynn can be present still in our own commitment to live fully engaged, selfless lives. I love you so, Lynn Louise, and cherish every warm, zany moment we shared at St.O and over the years since. Thank you being my sidekick, soul mate, role model and dearest friend!!!
