

Lynn A. (Siudzinski) Paal

April 15, 1958 - September 14, 2025

Lynn Paal (Siudzinski)

Sunday September 14th 2025 marks my last day in this world. My spirit has moved on to the next place, which is in heaven with my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. I gave it my all, ALS won.

Years ago on April 15, 1958 my parents Norbert and Jackie Siudzinski gave me the gift of life. I was so very fortunate to grow up in a loving and happy home with my parents and four siblings.

We enjoyed the simple things in life, playing outdoors, picnics, swimming at the pool, bike riding and always a family dinner together which often included relatives or friends. Together we created and shared so many beautiful and wonderful memories, ones I always treasured.

I graduated from Preble High School in 1976. On June 30, 1979 I married Alan Paal, my rock, my best friend, my soul mate and the love of my life. Together we became the very proud parents of our amazing sons Adam and Kyle, two of life's greatest gifts to us. I was so very blessed with the opportunity of being a stay at home mom, while raising my own children I had a home daycare with room for more little ones to love, this was a very precious time in my life.

Seems like our boys grew up rather quickly and created a new life of their own which eventually made me the proud grandma to Landon, Mason, Weston, Jaclyn, and then 2 bonus granddaughters Maddy and Lucy. With blessings from above, again I was able to care for little ones in our home which was usually filled with noise and chatter, love and laughter.

When I wasn't busy chasing little ones I enjoyed so many more things that life had to offer.

Some personal favorites being early morning walks, reading, crafts, knitting, spending time up north and attending grandkids sporting events. Family was everything to me.

My absolute favorite me-time was spent in my flower garden, my happy place, my heaven on earth. I enjoyed everything about it, creating, planting, watering, weeding, and eventually sitting back and chillin.

To many it seemed like a ton of work, pure pleasure in my eyes. Just a simple girl who enjoyed life's simple pleasures.

Today I leave behind my husband Al, children Adam (Ashleigh), Kyle (Jenna) and grandchildren

Landon and Mason Paal, Weston and Jaclyn Paal, Maddy and Lucy Gilson.

Included with them are my siblings Jeanine Mead (Mike), Mike Siudzinski, Lori Harrill (Jeff), Dan Siudzinski (Mary).

Brothers and sister in-laws Brian and Kim Paal and Dennis and Kelly Paal.

Many nieces, and nephews.

In accordance with Lynn's wishes a private gathering will be held for her immediate family.

My life was filled with so much love from my amazing family, dear friends, and many beautiful people I met along the way. From my heart: May your lives always be full of all the love and happiness your heart can hold.

No flowers please (shower the special people in your life with them)

Until our spirits meet again,

See you on the other side.

Lynn

“ You are now Home!
I can't imagine the Beauty you see and the Love you must feel, walking with Lord, our God. You are Blessed!

“ Al, Adam, Kyle and families. I can't tell you how sorry we are to hear of Lynn's passing. She was genuinely one of the most sweetest people I e ever known. Always kind words of everyone. We were one of the lucky fortunate ones. She was 2nd mom to Courtney when she was little. She not only took loving care of her, but was a saving grace to me being a working mom. Don't know what I would have done without her. Our hearts go out to you. She had a rough road... Not once but twice and gave it her best. It's my hope she will be rewarded in heaven and watch over you as she always took great care of her family. Greatest sympathy, thinking of you at this sad time. Cheri and Mark Schounard
