“ Kenny and Alicia, so sorry to read of Mary's passing. I remember stories of my late husband Rom working with Mary at the Super Value, many decades ago. Mary was a sweetheart and the world was a nicer place because of Mary being in it. My deepest sympathy in your deep loss. Give yourselves time but then you will laugh and cry at some of the wonderful memories. I have an appointment at 9:30 that will not allow me to come to the service for Mary. Know I will be thinking of you during that time. God bless.

“ Dear Ken and Alicia, so sorry to learn of Mary's passing. Even though it's been 32 years since she took such good care of Holly, we still have such fond memories. What a dear, sweet, nurturing lady. Tom & I will be leaving to fly to FL at 5:30 Fri. a.m., or we would both be there to offer our condolences in person. Sending hugs and prayers.
