My life was a journey in which I was so blessed to have a lot of special family and friends. From the day I was told I had terminal cancer my family and friends walked alongside of me and gave me strength. I often wondered how I could feel so good and yet be preparing for my passing, but the Lord is calling me home and I feel very blessed to know in advance so that I leave nothing unsaid to my loved ones. I want them to know how much they were loved and appreciated by me.

Private services will be held at the convenience of the family.
