

Phyllis Taylor

November 25, 1914 - February 17, 2008

Phyllis Taylor Strong, loving and wise,” to the end, Phyllis Taylor, 93, relinquished her life on February 17, 2008 that she might begin living her eternal reward. She was born in this life to Phil and Mayme Hoppe, November 25, 1914. She graduated from St. Patrick grade school and West High school and married Walter Taylor in 1937. He preceded her in death in 1994. Together they raised three children who survive: Father Pete and Prof. Donald, Green Bay and Ann Fritz, Appleton. Her only sister, Inez Pilz survives as do five grandchildren and four great grandchildren, nieces, nephews and cousins. A superb homemaker, cook seamstress, she is cherished in death as she was in life. She laid herself down with dignity and in peace which comes from faith. Following cremation a Memorial Mass will be celebrated for the immediate family. Her cremains will be buried in the Wouters-Taylor plot of Fort Howard Memorial park. In lieu of other expressions of sympathy a memorial fund has been established by the family.
