He enjoyed playing cards, golfing, bowling, small game hunting and fishing, especially enjoying the peacefulness in the outdoors. He loved to cook and grill, but recently when his health didn’t allow him to he enjoyed watching the cooking channel and giving Mary Ellen new recipes to try. He had a great love for dogs, always enjoying a good dog by his side, having a special love for German shepherds, and now leaving behind his K-9 companion, Mia. Bob especially enjoyed “His Girls” and was very proud to hear of their accomplishments, let others know about them, and encouraged them to continue to do good things!
