

Ruth C. Lukes

December 13, 1931 - September 11, 2024

Ruth C. Lukes, 92, (formally from Kewaunee) passed away on September 11, 2024 at Moraine Ridge Assisted Living in Green Bay. She was born on December 13, 1931 in Door County to Henry and Myrtle Berg. When Ruth was a baby, her father tragically died at a young age. Myrtle married Orville Weborg and had 2 children Allan and the late Marilyn Weborg (Hauser). Ruth married Leo Lukes in 1950 and lived in Kewaunee until their retirement and then moved to Green Bay. They had 5 children, Gary, Lynn, Wendy, Kevin, and a daughter Bonnie who died at birth. Throughout her life she worked as a waitress and cook in various restaurants in Kewaunee and Brown County. Her favorite memories were spending time in Door County at her grandparents farm. Ruth enjoyed golf and bowling leagues throughout her life. Ruth served many roles including being a Girl Scout and Cub Scout leader. She also sang in church choirs and Christian Praise Bands. She was the best cheerleader at her children's activities. She enjoyed her grandchildren and spent quality time with them. Survivors include her 4 children: Gary (Sarah) Lukes , Lynn Lukes and special friend (Toni Charles), Wendy and fiancé (Dave Burke), Kevin Lukes (Erika). Grandchildren: Amy, Christopher, Jamie, Mason and Caden. Great grandchildren: Mitchell, Holly, Bronwyn, Elena. Many nieces and nephews. Ruth was preceded in death by her husband Leo, her parents, her daughter Bonnie, her sister Marilyn Hauser.

A funeral is planned on Saturday, October 26 at Grace Lutheran Church in Green Bay. Visitation 9:30 -11 a.m. Service 11 a.m. Thank you to the staff and her friends (especially Mary and Abby) at Moraine Ridge for the care and compassion they gave Ruth over the years.
