

Susan Gladh

April 12, 1951 - December 13, 2010

Susan G. Gladh, 59, Green Bay was taken by God to be an Angel on Monday, December 13, 2010. Susan was born on April 12, 1951 in Marshfield, the daughter of the now late Lloyd and Esther (Guenther) Hansen. She was a graduate of Loyal High School with the class of 1969. On December 26, 1984 she married Bruce Gladh at Calvary Lutheran Church in Loyal. Susan was employed as a Human Resource Analyst for Brown County for over 10 years and truly loved her job and the people she worked with. Prior to re-locating to Green Bay she was employed for over 20 years in the Human Resource Department at the Howard Young Medical Center in Woodruff. Her first love in life was her family and spent it as a caring wife, mother and grandmother. Susan was true to her faith, family and friends. The legacy she left to her loved ones was her strong commitment to family. Susan liked to spend time outdoors and greatly enjoyed camping and boating with her family. She was quite a cook and was always willing to showcase her talent for her family, of which they were never disappointed and left very full. Susan loved traveling and greatly enjoyed the trips to Mexico, New York and Florida. Susan is survived by her loving husband Bruce, her daughters Kimberly Loos, Appleton; Stacie Pack (Cory Schlafer), Menasha; Jodi (Daniel) Drost, Medford; Tana (Brad) Peotter, Rhinelander; Georgia (Jeremy) Fryar, Marshfield; 7 grandchildren Jacob, Emma, Cal, Makenna, Brooklyn, Aubrey and Kylie, 1 brother and sister-in-law Ken (Kay) Hansen, St. Germain; 1 sister and brother-in-law Donna (Herb) Langfeldt, Loyal; her best friend and support system Debbie Klarkowski, Denmark. She is further survived by nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. In honor of Susan's wishes there will be a private gathering and service for the immediate family. On-line condolences may be expressed at www.hansenfuneralservice.com The family would like to extend a warm note of appreciation to Dr. Dhimant Patel, Dr. David Rhode and all of the Angels at the Vince Lombardi Cancer Center for all of their kindness and loving support in caring for Susan.
